MOVING? OPTIONS TO MOVE YOUR PERSONAL ITEMS

Congratulations on your upcoming assignment! Below is some information on the type(s) of shipments that MAY be available based on your orders:

- Personally Procured Move (PPM):
  - All aspects of the move are arranged by you (i.e. packing, loading, transporting, and unloading)
  - May use your own vehicle, rent a truck and/or trailer, hire a commercial carrier or utilize a “you pack/they load” method (PODs, U-Haul’s U-Box, etc.)

NOTE: PPMs to overseas locations may not be authorized
- Household Goods (HHG) Shipment:
  - assigned to a Transportation Service Provider (TSP or moving company) who is responsible for the packing, loading, transporting and delivery of the shipment
- Unaccompanied Baggage (UB) Shipment:
  - limited in weight based on new assignment location
  - cannot contain furniture but can contain clothing, bedding & linens, pots & pans, small electronics and collapsible baby items i.e. crib, highchair, stroller, etc.
- Storage-in-Transit (SIT):
  - Temporary storage (90 days or less)
  - May be utilized at origin or destination
- Non-Temporary Storage (NTS):
  - Long-term storage, if authorized based on orders
  - Items you do not wish to ship to your new duty station
  - Utilized at origin (pickup) location
  - Items may remain in NTS for the duration of your tour (some restrictions may apply depending on the type of orders you hold)
- Personally Owned Vehicle (POV):
  - Primarily OCONUS authorized shipment. Some locations have restrictions
  - Authorization within CONUS is only authorized if:
    - 1) Member is unable to drive due to medical reasons
    - 2) Insufficient time to drive to new duty station based on when orders were issued and report date
    - 3) Homeport Change, if authorized

Can you have more than one type of shipment? Yes, orders are key in determining what shipments you are authorized.
