Future NAVSUP FLC Bahrain Team Member,

First and foremost, congratulations on your selection to Naval Supply Systems Command (NAVSUP) Fleet Logistics Center (FLC) Bahrain and welcome to the team! If you haven't had the opportunity to serve in the U.S. 5th Fleet area of responsibility, I can personally say it's an absolute challenge; however, I find it as one of the most rewarding tours in my career. The team is here to assist and answer questions you may have regarding entitlements, household goods, shipping a vehicle, and importing your pet(s), to name a few.

Bahrain Edge is a Navy Knowledge Online course I strongly recommend you complete before your arrival. The course provides information on customs, traditions, expectations, etc. in Bahrain. You can also find additional information on our command Facebook page, Naval Supply Systems Command Fleet Logistics Center, Bahrain, our command website <https://www.navsup.navy.mil/public/navsup/flcb>, or by contacting our public affairs office at m-ba-navsupflcbahrain-pao@me.navy.mil. Another great resource at your fingertips is our command ombudsman. She can be reached at ombudsmanflcb@gmail.com to answer any questions or concerns you or your family may have.

Upon receipt of your orders, please submit your No Fee passport application at the earliest opportunity due to the backlog of applications and the time required to process and approve your request. If you don't receive your No Fee passport before your departure, you'll still be able to enter Bahrain with your CAC and a hard copy of your orders.

Please don't hesitate to ask questions. Contact your sponsor early and often. If you have any concerns during your pcs transfer, you can also contact our sponsor coordinator by emailing m-ba-navsupflcbahrain-sponsorship@oconus.navy.mil; our administration department at DSN 318-439-2467, commercial 011-973-1785-2467, email m-ba-navsupflc-bahrain-admin@me.navy.mil; or myself at DSN 318-439-6291, commercial 011-973-1785-6291, email navsupflcbasel@me.navy.mil.

We look forward to your arrival. Once again, congratulations on your selection to NAVSUP FLC Bahrain and welcome aboard!

J. P. Gabriel
