NEX Customers Donate to Navy-Marine Corps Relief Society

Rear Adm. Robert J. Bianchi (Ret), Chief Executive Officer, Navy Exchange Service Command (NEXCOM) presented a check for $247,680 to the Navy-Marine Corps Relief Society representing money donated by NEX customers during a recent promotion.

“We are proud to be able to give our customers the opportunity to support Navy-Marine Corps Relief Society through the purchase of the benefit ticket,” said Bianchi. “Our customers know the outstanding support Navy-Marine Corps Relief Society gives to our Sailors, Marines and their families. This donation will allow Navy-Marine Corps Relief to help many, many families this year.”

Since 2011, NEXCOM has been partnering with Navy-Marine Corps Relief Society on an annual fund raising effort and over the past seven years, NEX patrons have donated over $1.6 million through this effort. In return for a $5 donation to Navy-Marine Corps Relief Society, customers receive a card that entitled them to specific discounts for a one-time purchase at a NEX in April 2017.

About NEXCOM

The Navy Exchange Service Command (NEXCOM) oversees 100 Navy Exchange (NEX) facilities and nearly 300 stores worldwide, 39 Navy Lodges, the Ships Store Program, the Uniform Program Management Office, the Navy Clothing and Textile Research Facility and the Telecommunications Program Office. NEXCOM's parent command is the Naval Supply Systems Command. NEXCOM's mission is to provide authorized customers quality goods and services at a savings and to support Navy quality of life programs for active duty military, retirees, reservists and their families. NEXs and Navy Lodges operate primarily as a non-appropriated fund (NAF) business instrumentality. NEX revenues generated are used to support Navy Morale, Welfare, and Recreation (MWR) programs. Since 1946, NEXCOM has given $2.5 billion to Navy MWR quality of life programs. Shop online at myNavyExchange.com.
